WWBBA - Description

A long way away, ~~in~~ a far away land, there is an ancient tree in the forest. It has a cobbles path leading to an open <sup>wooden</sup> door. There is lots of green grass and lots of bushes. Also there is a red bird sat on top of the tall tree, that towers above the ground. The cobbles path has cracks in so people ~~can~~ <sup>may</sup> fall whenever they come. There are lots of bushes and in one of ~~the~~ the bushes there is an animal as funny as a donkey. Also there is a ~~door~~ side that is pitch black just like a ~~door~~ <sup>closet</sup> with no lights, and the other side is as bright as the sun. It has dark leaves at one side and bright leaves at the other. Also ~~it~~ <sup>it</sup> looks like behind the tree is an <sup>old</sup> brick bridge, ~~be~~ and it looks like colours are fading through the old, cracked tree.

SC-I can retell a story

All was quiet, while the black and white penguins were relaxing on ~~an~~ icebergs enjoying their precious little time. Suddenly BOOM! an unexpected laser ~~zapped~~ <sup>zapped</sup> one of the icebergs and made the penguins fall into the ice cold water.

Amazed, Dr Hammer caked in beige and yelled "Yes! I've done it!" My ~~his~~ laser works! Dr Hammer's ~~fishy~~ <sup>fishy</sup> minias giggled and went back to doing their jobs.

Calmy, I got for (Spy Fox) and Lily were looking at each other. Spy Fox's ~~watch~~ <sup>watch</sup> ~~and~~ <sup>which</sup> ~~watch~~ went off <sup>which</sup> ~~which~~ meant that something bad was happening. In a blink of an eye, Spy Fox was gone.

Flying away in his ~~gliding~~ <sup>plouting</sup> car, Spy Fox made it to his destination. Getting out of his car, Spy Fox grabbed his binoculars and observed a way to get in. Joyfully, Spy Fox found away in Dr Hammer's evil lab. Grabbing his grapple gun from his pocket ~~and~~ <sup>he</sup> aimed it for the hole. Unfortunately, it didn't reach the hole but it did ~~get~~ <sup>land</sup> near it.
